While on probation, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime. The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

In any case, the defendant should cooperate with the probation officer in meeting any financial obligations.

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons (supervised release cases only).

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment or placement on probation and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

- (12) The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;

4. The defendant shall submit his person, residence, office or vehicle to a search, conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of conditions of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches, pursuant to this condition.
5. The defendant shall not possess, or use a computer with access to any 'on-line computer service' at any location (including employment) without the prior written approval of the probation office.
